Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Rocks April 16: It was very stormy over the weekend, especially Saturday night. Happy Easter to one and all.

A number of people attended the Ayers and Paulette wedding at Evergreen Church Saturday. They will reside in the Gladstone area.

A very large crowd from this area attended the Parker and Richardson wedding at Pisgah Baptist Church at Rice Saturday night. After the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The couple went on a Southern wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith are all smiles: It's a son, born on April 5. He joins two sisters, Elizabeth and Lisa. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Pamplin.

Timothy Tolley and Keith Dickerson of Pamplin were named to the dean's list at V.P.I for the winter quarter. Congratulations to them.

Sympathy goes out to the family of Pearl Meredith Glenn, who was buried at Prospect Methodist Church on Tuesday, April 16 at 2 p.m.

Junior Richardson is home from the hospital. May he have a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ruby Webb come home last Sunday from the hospital after having surgery. May she have a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beale celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at Elon Church Easter Sunday.

Greg Williams celebrated his first birthday on Wednesday, April 18.

Susan Morris and Patty Roach of Radford University are at home for a spring break.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris are all smiles: It's a boy, born on April 13. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Martin.

W.R. Moore and son Bernard were in West Virginia last weekend to visit his sister.

The Rev. Wes Williams' parents returned to their home in South Carolina Thursday after spending a few days here.

The revival came to a close at Rocks on Thursday night. Many visitors came each night. This was Pastor McDowell's 12th revival held at Rocks Church. He gets better all the time. He preaches only the Gospel. If you didn't hear him you really missed a lot.

We were blessed with special music each night. May the Lord bless him wherever he goes.

Time will soon be here for the Rev. Jay Stewart and Laura Lee to come in from Africa for the graduation exercise at College, and the wedding of one of their daughter's in June.

The singing Durrells will be at Rocks on April 29. This will be on fast time so don't miss it.

The annual meeting of the Appomattox Baptist W.M.U. will be May 3 at 5:30 p.m.

Preparing for Easter

Switzer to lead worship

Dr. David K. Switzer, professor of pastoral care and counseling, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, will be leading a workshop for area clergy on May 17.

The workshop, titled "Clergy Involvement in Crisis Counseling" will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in Lynchburg General Hospital's auditorium.

The purpose of this workshop is to assist the pastor in crisis situations.

For more information call the Chaplaincy Department at Lynchburg General Hospital, 528-2080.

Gravel Hill Church news

By MILLIE BERKLEY

The Spring Revival at Gravel Hill Baptist Church April 2-7 was very successful. The congregation thanks the speakers, choirs and everyone who helped make this event so meaningful.

The "Ten Friends Rally" held at Gravel Hill April 8 was also a big success, and $400 was raised during the rally. Thanks to all who helped.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Epps visited relatives in Hustaville, Va. last week.

Mr. Craig Jackson visited his grandfather, Mr. Levi Jackson, in Hurtsville, recently.

Miss Carolyn Berkley recently visited a friend, Mrs. Patay Jones, in Altavista. Carolyn was dinner guest of Patay's mother, Mrs. Slayton, of Long Island, Va., the same weekend.

Deaths
